

PA Housing Search

A list of affordable accessible apartments can be found on the PA Housing Search website at www.pahousingsearch.com. The PA Housing Search website allows you to search by county or city for rental housing. The listings on the website include information such as:

- address,
- management contact information,
- unit size,
- rent,
- availability, and
- whether or not smoking is permitted.
- accessibility features, such as:
  - ✓ whether the building entrance and unit entrance are wide enough for a wheelchair,
  - ✓ bathroom grab bars,
  - ✓ roll-in shower,
  - ✓ counter height, and
  - ✓ types of appliance controls.

There are also photos of many of the listings; a location map; and information about nearby amenities like parks, schools, and hospitals. Finally, the website has other helpful resources such as calculators for affordability and moving costs, rental checklists and alerts for real estate scams and foreclosures.

Finally Home is a demonstration project of Values into Action funded by the Pennsylvania Developmental Disabilities Council (PADDCC) to assist individuals with disabilities from rural communities in meeting their goals to access and maintain control of their own homes. Diana T. Myers and Associates, Inc. (DMA) and Values Into Action created the Finally Home Housing Toolkit as a user-friendly resource providing housing information and tools for advocates, Housing Service Providers, Supports Coordinators, Supports Brokers, family members and other interested parties to support people with disabilities in securing the housing of their choice.

The Pennsylvania Developmental Disabilities Council is supported by the Administration for Community Living (ACL), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of a financial assistance award totaling $3,095,416.00 with 100 percent funding by ACL/HHS. Council efforts are those of the grantee and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by ACL/HHS, or the U.S. Government.
